

DELAWARE RECREATION AND PARKS SOCIETY
WILLIAM J. HOPKINS FELLOWSHIP
APPLICATION INFORMATION

The William J. Hopkins Fellowship was established upon Bill Hopkins' retirement as Director of the State Division of Parks and Recreation in honor of his contributions and dedication to professional training and development in the field of parks and recreation. The fellowship is administered by the Delaware Recreation and Parks Society Recognition and Awards Committee.

Fellowship Program

The Hopkins Fellowship will provide an award, based on available funding, commensurate with the actual need as approved by the Committee. The award will be made for professional training programs or education. Traditional conferences or conventions alone will not receive serious consideration for this fellowship program. The award may be used for any expenses associated with the approved program such as tuition, registration, travel, lodging, meals, etc. The committee will review and approve how the recipient will use the award.

Fellowship Eligibility

To be eligible, an applicant must have become an active Professional member of the Delaware Recreation and Parks Society prior to December 1, 2021. The Hopkins Fellowship is intended to focus on opportunities for young, up-and-coming professionals to receive further management training or education to enhance their professional development. Any and all DRPS professional members are encouraged to apply; however, the Committee will give preference to those members who traditionally have not had many such opportunities during their careers. The applicant and/or applicant's employer must commit to payment of the balance of any cost not covered by the award.

Fellowship Award Criteria

1. Statement of financial need
2. Progression of professional development as demonstrated by work history/resume
3. Submission of a brief, statement/essay on "Why I should be awarded this fellowship."

Application Process

1. The form must be completed by the applicant and signed by the applicant's supervisor or agency official to validate the application and, if necessary, to certify support for the remaining costs of the training not covered by the fellowship award.
2. The application form must be received no later than January 21, 2022 by:

Patrick Thompson
DRPS Recognition and Awards Committee
PO Box 36
Yorklyn, DE 19726
Patrick.thompson@delaware.gov

3. Notification of the fellowship award will be made at the DRPS Recognition and Awards Banquet on March 3, 2022.

Deadline for submission: January 28, 2022
